

Three Things You Can Do This Week

- Read about the UNH Chapter's visit to IHI
- Tune in to WIHI before the upcoming Supreme Court decision
- Check out what's going on in the Community

Quick Links

- IHI Open School Website
- Online Courses
- Chapter Directory
- Start a Chapter
- Chapter Leader Toolkit
- Contact Us

University of New Hampshire Chapter Visits the IHI Office

This week on our blog, Chapter Leader Jessica Hatch and members of the University of New Hampshire Chapter share details of their experience visiting the IHI office in Cambridge, MA.

Jessica and her classmates in the clinical nurse leader program at UNH offer an inside scoop of IHI's organizational culture and discuss everything from our unique floor plan to how quality improvement and innovation is ingrained in our work.

WIHI: Essential Skills for Health Care Reformers and Improvers

On the eve of the Supreme Court issuing its decision on the Affordable Care Act, IHI invites you to attend our next WIHI on June 20th.

Jeff Selberg, IHI COO, and guest Parker Palmer, Founder of the Center for Courage and Renewal, will lead a discussion around what it means to be an effective health care leader during a time with new policies, payment schemes, and community challenges.

Community Updates

Welcome, New Chapters

United States
East Carolina University, North Carolina
Lecom, Florida

International
University of Warwick, England

Highlighting Quality Improvement in Toronto

The University of Toronto Chapter recently hosted the 2nd Annual Quality Improvement & Patient Safety (QuIPS) Conference, which provided attendees with ample opportunity to discover the breadth of health care system innovations occurring in Toronto and beyond.

Hear from University of Toronto medical student Craig Olmstead (pictured at left) on our blog as he shares insight on his experience at the conference. Craig discusses what it was like to present his team's quality improvement project -- and later get recognized for the improvement efforts.