Have You Downloaded the IHI Open School Mobile App?

Nearly 4,000 people have downloaded the IHI Open School app since it was released last October. "I can take a course when I have some spare time," said one user in the App Store. "It's a great addition to an already great learning tool."

Students, residents, and faculty -- as well as subscribers -- can access our course content for free on iPhones and iPads! Courses automatically sync with your online progress. Users can also access tips, tools, and useful resources directly within the app. Download it today and take improvement with you wherever you go!

2012 National Forum Storyboards Available Online

One of the highlights of every IHI National Forum is the rich collection of quality improvement storyboards. Last month in Orlando, more than 500 storyboards -- from students and professionals -- presented results, challenges, and lessons learned from nearly every corner of the health care improvement world. Even if you couldn't attend the National Forum in person, you can view the inspiring storyboards online.

Tell Us About Your Event and Apply for Funding

No Chapter event is too small. Whether you're planning introductory informational sessions about your Chapter to recruit new students or patient speaker panels for Patient Safety Month in March, the IHI Open School team wants to hear about your upcoming events! Click here to let us know the details of your event.

And don't forget that the IHI Open School team is here to help with your Chapter funding needs. Each quarter, we set aside a small amount to help you make your events successful. Fill out the form to be considered for funding.

Join a Free Webinar on Leadership by Example

Dr. Sanjiv Chopra, an expert on leadership and faculty dean for continuing education at Harvard Medical School, will be leading a discussion on his book, Leadership by Example: The Ten Key Principles of All Great Leaders, during a free webinar on January 17 at 1 PM EST. Participants will learn the 10 principles of great leaders and explore how these principles can be applied by everyone within an organization, regardless of their title. Apply for a Patient Safety Summer Camp Scholarship

The Telluride Patient Safety Student Summer Camp is a one-week experience offering an in-depth exploration of current patient safety issues and risk reduction strategies to achieve optimal patient care. Two one-week summer camps will be offered in 2013. Grants that will sponsor 40 medical students and 20 nursing students to engage in these experiences are now available through the support of the Doctor's Company Foundation and MedStar Health. Applications are due February 15. Click here to learn more.
